Professor German Bernácer
Madrid.

Dear Professor Bernacer,

I might be able and willing to translate an article of 9000 or 10000 words for you but I cannot make a definite promise at this date because of the pressure of more necessary business. Perhaps in the circumstances it would be best for you to look elsewhere for a translator, as I could not undertake to do it for some time to come in any case.

I turned your paper over to Mr. Selle with the suggestion that he communicate with you directly.

It will be very pleasant to have any comments you may care to make about my book.

Cordially and sincerely yours
Montgomery D. Andrews
