

Trinity College
Cambridge
29.5.46.

Dear Professor Bernauer,

I am afraid that I have two letters from you - of April 4 and April 28 - unanswered. I am afraid, too, that the second, enclosing some further thoughts on monetary theory, must remain unanswered, - perhaps for a considerable time! But I must not delay longer in letting you know that I have no objection to your including, in the translation of my book, the article from Economica about your pamphlet; and I have obtained the requisite permission ~~from~~ both from King and Staples and from Economica. It should be made clear, please, that it did not form part of the original book.

I am afraid the translation is causing you much trouble, and I am grateful to you for taking so much care over it.

Yours sincerely,

D. H. Anthony.