

Encyclopaedia of the Social Sciences

EDWIN R. A. SELIGMAN, LL. D., EDITOR-IN-CHIEF ALVIN JOHNSON, PH. D., MANAGING EDITOR

NE

Februar

Professor G. Bernacer,
San Fernando, 8, Alicante.

My dear Professor Bernacer:

I am sorry not to have written you for We have been rather slow in working out our edito so that our first volume, which will include only will not appear before September. Moreover, beca connections, we are under some obligation to give standing scholars in this country. On the whole, contributions from foreigners in our first volume however, a great many biographies of foreign soci with them we are free to deal at our pleasure. W a few of them? For the first volume we need the ARRETA DE MONTE SEGURO, ANTONIO, and ARRIQUIBAR, we are compelled to limit the space for them very pect to see treated only the essentials bearing o sition in science and public affairs. For the bi and ARRIQUIBAR, we are forced to fix the space at If, as you prefer, you write the biographies in S perfectly acceptable to us; the space limitation, as much to the Spanish text.

I am enclosing a Note to Contributors, fourth sections of which indicate more in detail make of our biographies. One detail which perhap the desirability of bibliographical reference to on the subject of biography, such as formal biogr works, in which special attention is given to his position.